

It is totally unbelievable that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

This totally smells of the right
wing media agenda.
This is a GREAT example of why we should not allow corporations to hold
more and bigger
percentages of the air waves.

Calling this a documentary is simply a way to go
the campaign laws.
If they insist on MAKING their
stations run this,
then they should also be required to run a pro-Kerry
"documentary" to abide by the campaign laws.

The FCC should be protecting the PUBLIC'S airwaves
and hold Sinclair to the essence of the law instead of just the letter of the law

Thank you.
